

Australian Government
Department of Education

Regional University Study Hubs Key Facts

Reporting Period 1 2025 (to 30 June)

6,511
STUDENTS

are supported by Regional University Study Hubs, a 48% increase in the past year.

18,367
STUDENTS

have been supported by Regional University Study Hubs since the program's establishment.

Regional University Study Hubs

43%

of students supported by Regional Hubs identify as First in Family to undertake tertiary education

76%

of students supported by Regional Hubs identify as Female

13%

of students supported by Regional Hubs identify as First Nations

54%

of students supported by Regional Hubs are over the age of 25

91%

of students surveyed in 2024 said the support provided by their Hub increased their motivation for their studies.

66%

of students supported by Regional Hubs study courses at the Bachelor level or above

The most popular fields of education among students supported by Regional Hubs are:

Health
(33%)

Education
(18%)

Society and Culture
(16%)

More information about the Regional University Study Hubs Program can be found at www.education.gov.au/regional-university-study-hubs.

For questions or inquiries, please contact us at regional@education.gov.au